Alabama Arkansas Jalifornia Jonnecticut Delaware Jorda Georgia Hinois 11 Maine..... Maryland..... ew-Hampshire . New-York. 12 New-York. 9 Oregon.... Virginia.... West Virginia 2 Arizona. Colorado This was the quietest roll call yet, the only demonstration being caused by some slight Bristow gains and the pertinacity of New York in sticking to Conkling. After the roll had been concluded the Chair said there has been a correction made in the vote of Virginia. The Clerk-The vote now stands 3 for Roscoe Conk FOURTH BALLOT.

Hng, 4 for Oliver P Morton, and 15 for James G. Blaine.

There being no choice, the fourth ballot was then taken a follows:							9.

Whole vote.									759
Management fr	or a cho	100				CULL L			27.5
Mr. Blaine.						*			192
Mr. Fristow									Carlot Ch
Mr. Morion	200000000	2224							wa.
Mr. Conkline	*								254
Mr. Hartran	IL.zzzzz
Mr. Wasobu	me								3
Mr. Wneeler						*			- 2
The followin		wate	hes	itate
THO TOHOWIT	R 19 end	1000				144		-
		斑		 	3	15	8	-8	- 3
	1	2	8	Brist	B	Mort	Hart	Ä	12
4		94	- 2	-	-	- 69	-	- 2	- 5

And the second s	*		*					3
The following is the	vote	by i	State	# :
1	Blain	Haye	Bristor	Conkling	Morton	Hartran	Wheeler
States.	•	-	•	ing	D	anft	er	-
	3.	- 1	1.					_3
Alabama	16	**				**	**
Arkansas	1	2.5	122	11		44	**
California	6	3	3 9	**	**	**	**
Connecticut	6	1		**	**	**	**
Delaware			44			4	**
Florida	9		13	6	4	•		977
Georgia	35	'n	5	1000	100			- 3
Indiana.	10.70				30	**
lowa	2i	- 12	133	1		- 33	-	- 2
Kansas	10							0
Kentucky		-	24	200	7.7		- 32
Louisiana	5				11	**
Maine	14						**
Maryland			1.44				55
Massachusetts	5		19				2
Michigan	6	5	11		4.5			3
Miunesota	2	ï		2	4	ï	**
*Mississippi	18	î	3	554	8		**	-
Missouri	6					- 55	**
Nevada	3.0	-	ï	2		3
New-Hampshire	7		3			- 7
New-Jersey	12	6	- 33	1000
New-York			2	68		- 53
*North Carolina	9	1	-		1	8
Ohio		44
Oregon	6			**

There being no choice the Secretary called the roll for

When Michigan was called, Gov. Howard said: There is a man who has beaten three Democratic aspirants for Michigan votes to give him her whole vote to lay out the coming Democratic candidate for the Presidency; she

This was followed by a season of frantic enthusiasm, in which the New-Yorkers took a prominent part, swinging their hats with great exultation. The Maine men looked dubious, and Mr. Hale's face grew black. The excitement caused by this was dampened by the Blaine gain in Missouri, which followed soon after. It was stimu lated, however, by the Hayes gain in North Carolina.

A Delegate from Virginia-There are persons here upon the floor who are not members of the Convention. I move

The Chair-The Sergeant at-Arms will be called upor to eject any person from the area here who is not a dele-gate, if any delegate in the audience will call the atten-

The Chair (Lieut.-Gov. Woodford) announced the re-

11

30

∴ 53

.. 8 1 .. 3 3 .. 1 ..

2 68

Whole vote...
Necessary for a choice...
Mr. Blaine...
Mr. Bristow...

Mr. Conkling
Mr. Hartrauft
Mr. Washburne
Mr. Washburne

The following is the vote by States :

tion of the Chair to any particular person.

the Presidency, and since he is before us a gives twenty-two votes for R. B. Hayes.

that the floor be cleared.

pult of the ballot as follows:

States.

Arkansas California

Alabama.....

Telaware......

Georgia.
Ilinois.
Indiana
Ilowa.
Kansas.
Kentacky.
Louisians

Nevada
New-Hampshire. 7
New-Jorsey. 12
New-York
North Carolina*.

outh Carolinat ...

Territories.

16

2

Total.......287 102 114 82 95 69 2 3

There being no choice, the Clerk proceeded to call the roll for the sixth ballot. When Alabama was called there was no response.

The Chair—Shall time be given the Alabama delegation

The Chair-I think it is really the right of a delegation

Mr. Madden of New-York-I think it is about time that the delegations from the different large States should re-tire to consult. [Cries of "No, no."] Our delegation is for consultation. [Cries of "Object."]

THE CHANGE ON THE FIFTH BALLOT.

Territories.

Montana New-Mexico Utah Washington

There being no choice the roll was called for the .. 13 .. 10 .. 10 Immediately after the call began a delegate from New-York said: I move we take a recess of ton minutes. [Cries of No. no!] The New-York delegation returned and resumed their Virginia.... West Virginia...

William Cumback ascended the platform and spoke as SEVERAL CANDIDATES WITHDRAWN.

Total......308 113 111 81 85 50 2 4

Mr. Edick-I ask permission for the New-York delega-

The Chair-If the New-York delegation desires to withdraw, they can do it at their own motion, without ad-

Immediately after Colorado was called, the New-York delegation withdrew, following the example set by the Pennsylvanians. Just after Colorado had been called, a so large and spread out that it is impossible for us to

The Chair-Does the gentleman move a recess ! [Cries of "No, no!"]

Mr. Madden—If the delegations have not a chance to

The Chair-What motion does the gentleman make!

Mr. Madden—The Chair announced that the delega-tions should have time to consult before announcing their

The Chair-Tne roll call having been begun, a motion for an adjournment or recess is not in order.

The change in the vote of North Carelina, which had given Blaine nothing on the fourth or fifth ballot, was greeted with cheers, and that in Pennsylvania, which gave him 14 votes, provoked much entausiasm on the floor, as well as in the galleries. The gain in that of South Carolina was similarly received, as friends of

of their favorites, and rapturously applauded favorable changes. The result of the sixth ballot was as follows:

Morton,
Conkling
Hartranft
Washburne
Wheeler

Науся

The following is the vote by States :

... 21 1

Delaware.....

ouisiana.....

Maine Maryland...

Florida 4 Georgia* 9

New-Hampshire. 7 New-Jorsey 12 6 New-York 12 1

 Vermont
 13

 Virginia
 6

 West Virginia
 6

 Wisconsin
 16

 Territorics
 2

 Colorado
 6

 Dakota
 2

Dakota Idaho Montana New-Mexico

tion to withdraw.

dressing the Chair.

Dist. of Columbia 1

Nebraska.....

consult here, they ought to be allowed to retire.

vote. I move for a recess.

GENTIEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: A very unpleasant

GENTIEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: A very unpleasant duty is now imposed upon me, as Chairman of the indiana delegation, in withdrawing from the further consideration of this Convention the name of the great Indiana statesman. I express my own deep regret as well as that of every delegate from Indiana and every alternate and every elizen of Indiana who belongs to the Republican party. [Cheers.] When I say be stands in the Senate of the United States, the peer of the nobleat and the best, I other a truth that will not be disputed by any Republican in the United States of America. [Cheers.] But we feel that the time has come for us not to ak any longer that our friends shall stand by us. We thank them for the noble support that they have given us in this Convention, and in windrawing his name Indiana casts 25 votes for Rutherford B. Hayes.

The cheering and armigune and rails which followed.

The cheering and applause and yells which followed this announcement lasted for fully ten minutes. The galleries were wild with excitement-g upon the seats and waving their hats and canes in the ir, while the ladies used their handkerchiefs to show their predilection. After adding five votes for B. F. Bristow, Mr. Cumback returned to his delegation amid deaf-

Cheers came from every part of the hall when Kentucky was called and Gen. Harlan stepped to the plat-form. When the applause subsided he said:

ening cheers.

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: The Republicans of the State of Kentucky feel deeply gratified for the very corduit support which our distinguished fellow-citizen. Col. Bristow, has received from the delegrates of the various "tates, both North and South. We feel especially grateful to those gallant men of Massachusetts and Vermont and other States of New-England. When it was circulated from one end of the laud to the other that Benjamin H. Bristow was not to be President because he was born and raised in the South, Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, and Connecticut did him and us the honor to say Bristow was true to Republican principles. [applause.] Without detaining you longer, I have come upon the stand for the purpose of withdrawing the name of Benjamin H. Bristow and casting the entire vote of Kentucky for Rutherford B. Hayes. MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION:

The cheering which followed this unlooked for announcement was almost deafening. It came from all parts of the hall with the accompaniment of hat waying, with stamping and hand clapping. During this demonstration Mr. Cumback took his place on the platform and said: Gentlemen: As the name of Benjamin H. Bristow has been withdrawn, I am instructed to call the other five votes of Indiana for Rutherford B. Hayes. [Loud cheers, which lasted several minutes.]

(Loud cheers, which lasted several minutes.)

Col. Ingersoll of Illinois rose to a point of order, but tried in vain to make himself heard. The scene at this point was almost indescribable. Numbers of delegates mounted their seats, and, waving their hats and fans, yelled, "Hayes." The crowd in the kalleries was equally demonstrative. The noise continued about five minutes, during which time Col. Ingersoll maintained his position on the floor to press his point of order that the vote of Indiana could not be enanged.

Mr. Edick of New-York—I raised a similar question some time ago, and it was railed out of order. We insist on the same railing now.

The Chair—(Shouting at the top of his voice to make himself heard)—The gentleman from Indiana rises on a question of the correction of the vote of his delegation upon which the gentleman from Illinois raised the point of order, that under the fourth rule the change cannot be made. [Great confusion in the body of the hall.] The provision of the rule is, that when any St te has announced its vote, it shall so stand. [Interruption and noise on the right.] The Chair decided the point well taken.

The calling of the roll was proceeded with.

The calling of the roll was proceeded with.

The change of Mississippi to Hayes provoked another

The change of Mississippi to Hayes provoked another outburst of yells.

When New-York was called, Mr. Pomeroy said: To indicate that New-York is in favor of multy and victory, she casts 61 votes for Rutherford B. Hayes and 9 votes for James G. Blaine.

This report was greeted with feroclous cheers.

When Moutana was called, the Chairman said that Moutana, yielding to no one in admiration of the gallant statesman from Maine, casts her two votes for Rutherford E. Hayes.

statesmen from Maine, casts her two votes for Ruther-ford B. Hayes.

The result of the vote was known as soon as the roll-call was over, and the delegates on the victorious side abandoned themselves to shouts of triumph.

HAYES NOMINATED.

The Chair announced the vote as follows:
 Whole vote.
 756

 Necessary for a choice.
 378

 Mr. Hayes.
 384

 Mr. Blaine.
 351

 Mr. Bristow.
 21
 The following is the vote by States:

S E	Hay	Bris		4	18125
		0	States.		9
States.		3		01	. *
Alabama17		13	Massachusetts 5	00
Atkausas11	- 4	4.0	Michigan	**	**
California 6	6	4.5	Miunesots 9	1
Connecticut 2	3	7	Mississippi	16
De aware 6			Missour20	10
Florida 8		41	Nebraska 6	4.
Georgia*14		1	Nevada	6
Illipois35	2	5	New-H mpshire. 7	3
Indiana	25	5	Now-Jersey 12	6 3 6
Iowa22	-	400	New-York 9	61
Каркав			North Carolina	20
Kentucky	24		Outo	44	**
		**		**
Louisiana14	2		Oregon 6	22
Maine			Penusylvania34	24
Maryland16			Dakota 2

Rhode Island 2	6		LTA	abo.			2
South Carolina. 7	7		M	ontar	13		. 0
Tennessee 6	18		N	w.M	exico		2	922
Texas 1	15		TI	de			2
Vermont	10	•••	w	a a la fee	gton.	*	5
Virgin a14	- 8				ng			***
West Virginia 6	4		D	at. C	dumi	na	6
Wisconsin16	4					-	-
Territories.	- 70	0.50				9.5	1 384
Arizona 2		×+:		7 Ab	sent.
Colorado 6						90
1	RECA	PIT	ULA	TION	r
	10	it.	24.	34.	4th.	5th.	6th.	7th.
Whole vote			47	755		753	754	756
Necessary for a choice	ce.38			378	378	377	378	379

Hayes 65	64	67	68	102	113	38
Blaine291	298	293	292	287	308	35
Bristow113	114	121	126	114	111	2
Morton125	111	113	108	95	85
Conkling 96	93	90	84	82	81
Hartrauft 58	63	68	71	69	50
Washburne	1	1	3	3	4
Wheeler	3	2	2	2	2
Jewell 11		- 2	- 2	- 0.0	100	- 13
The Chair-Rutherford B	. Hay	res of	the	State	of (hio
baving received a majority	of all	1 the	votes	cast,	is he	reb;
			-			- 44

Bristow and Hayes were also jubilant over the accessions declared to be the nominee of this Convention for th office of President of the United States. It is moved that the nomination of the Convention be made unanimous, and on that Mr. Frye of Maine has the floor:

Mr. Frye of Maine said: Mr. President: I know well that this immense and enthusiastic Convention will pardon me if I say just one word of kindness and of thanks to the glorious supporters that our candidate, Mr. Blaine, has had here. [Applause.] No words of mine can express the thanks which Maine gives you men who have stood by her as you have God bless you for ever and forever. [At this point Mr. Frye's voice, in consequence of hoarseness, became almost inaudible.] I have done too much hallooing for James G. Blaine to preserve my voice. [Applause and laughter.] We recognize the fact that the Convention in its wisdom has selected the Hon. Mr. Hayes as its standard bearer in the next contest for liberty, for justice, for humanity, and for civilization, and the State of Maine accepts and indorses, fully and completely, and rejoices in the nomination of Mr. Hayes. [Cheers. Our gallant chieftain, James G. Blaine, in September next, shall take the field in the State of Maine for the man you have selected, and we will secure that State for him by 20,000 majority-[cheers]-and then when we have finished Maine, we will go onward under the lead of Blaine into the old Commonwealth of Massachusetts-[cheers]-and we will sweep her with their help (looking at the Massachusetts delegation) by 60,000 majority."

Mr. Frye's voice at this time became so husky that he could hardly speak. He realized it was impossible for him to go on, and therefore said, " It is useless for me to try to speak; my voice is all gone."

Judge Poland of Vermont-Let me suggest that you do not try to speak loud; speak in your ordinary tone of voice, and we will keep quiet.

Senator Lewis of West Virginia moved that the Chairman appoint a Committee of Five to wait upon Gov. Hayes and to inform him of his unanimous nomination by this Convention. Carried.

VICE-PRESIDENT NOMINATED. A delegate from New-Jersey moved to proceed to the nomination of Vice-President. Carried. Judge Poland of Vermont-I nominate the Hon. Wil-

iam A. Wheeler of New-York. (Cheers.)
Gen. Hawley of Connecticut—I beg leave to put in nomination for the Vice-Presidency of the United States Judge Hoar—In behalf of the State of Massachusetts I the Hon, Marshall Jewell, [Cheers.]

second the nomination of the Hon. William A. Wheeler of New-York for the Vice-Presidency, and I desire to say that there are many inhabitants of that State who would willingly intrust the Presidency to this great and honorable statesman. [Cacera.] Thomas C. Platt of New-York—In behalf of the delega tion of New-York, I desire to put in nomination the Hon. Stewart L. Woodford. [Cheers.]

A delegate moved that the roll be called, and that each State having a candidate should then present his name State having a candidate should then present his name to the Convention. Carried.

The clerk began the call of the roll. When Indiana was called, Mr. Cumback took the platform.

Mr. Cumback—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Convention-|great confusion.]

The Chair-Will the gentlemen on the left, near the Elinois delegation, be scated ! Col. Ingersoil, Chairman of the Illinois delegation-Pennsylvanians. Just after Colorado had been called, a delegate from Virginia arose and said there are gentlemen upon the floor who do not belong to the Convention. I insist upon their being removed.

There was no necessity for exertion on the part of the Sergeant-at-Arms, as the outsiders quietly walked from among the delegates.

At this moment the New-York delegation began to witndraw to an ante-room for consultation. Mr. Rogers of New-York asked unanimous consent for a recess. Illinois gives 42 votes for Wheeler. [Laughter.] Mr. Cumback-Indiana, by a large majority of her delegates, rises to second the nomination of that gallant soldier, that wise statesman, that pure patriot, siewart L. Woodford of New-York. When Kentucky was called Mr. Harlan said, "I am directed by the meanimous vote of the Kentucky colega-tion in this Convention to present for the office of Vicesidens of the United States that distinguished soldier and statesman Gen. Joseph R. Hawley of Connecticut." The Chair directed the Clerk to read the list of nominations, after which the call of the States was proceeded with. A ballot was then begun. When New-York was reached, Lieut-Gov. Woodford weut on the platform, and was granted permission to say a word. He then

On motion, three ringing obsers were then accorded Woodford. When Tennessee had been reached, Wheeler had received over 300 votes, and it was apparent that he was nominated. Mr. Kellogg of Connectiout withdrew the name of Marshall Jewell and moved the unanimous nomination of Mr. Wheeler.

The Chair put the motion and it was carried, and he announced that William A. Wheeler, having received a majority of the votes of this Convention, is hereby de clared the nominee for Vice-President of the United States. [Loud cheers.]

The Chairman then read the following telegram : Washington, D. C., June 16, 1876.

To the Hon. Eugene Halk: I hope that you will find it convenient to stop in Columbus and bear my congratulations and sincere personal respects and regards to Gov. Hayes.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

The reading of the telegram was receved with cheers.

The following were appointed members of the Commit-tee, with the understanding that delegates from Texas tee, with the understanding that delegates from Texas should be appointed in the evening:

Jerry Haralson, Alabama; Powell Clayton, Arkansas; John C. Gorham, California; Marshall Jewell, Connecticut; Samuel M. Harrington, Delaware; Win, J. Furman, Florida; James G. Devol, Georgia; James P. Root, Illinois; Wim, Cumback, Indiana; John Y. Stone, Iowa; John A. Martin, Kausas; Win, C. Goodloe, Kentucky; P. B. S. Pinchback, Louislana; Win, P. Frye, Maine; Chas, C. Fuller, Maryland; George F. Hoar, Massachusetts; Zach, Chandler, Michigan; John T. Averill, Minnesota; G. M. Buchman, Mississippi; Chauncey Y. Filey, Missouri; L. W. Osborn, Nebraska; John P. Jones, Nevada; George A. Halsey, New-Jersey; A. B. Cornell, New-York; Thomas B. Keogh, North Carolina; A. T. Wickoff, Ohio; H. W. Scott, Oregon; Nelson W. Aldridge, Pennsylyania; John J. Patterson, South Carolina; William Rule, Tennessee; M. S. Colburn, Vermont; J. D. Sener, Virghals; John W. Mason, Grafton, West Virginia; Elihu Enos, Wisconsin; Newton Edmands, Dakota; S. J. Bowen, District of Columbia; Thomas Doualdson, Idaho; A. H. Beattle, Montana; Stephen B. Elkins, New-Mexico; John R. MeBride, Utah; Change Jacobs, Washington Territory; Joseph M. Cary, Wyoming; William E. Canndler, New-Hampshire; W. Eddridge, Rhode Island.

THE CANDIDATES PRESENTED TO THE PEOPLE. Mr. Smith of New-York-As Secretary of the Comm tee on Resolutions, I desire to report the following declaration, and move that it is added to the platform: declaration, and move that it is added to the platform:

That we present as our candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States two distinguished statesmen of eminent ability and character, and consciously fitted for those two high offices, and we confidently appeal to the American people to entrust the administration of their public affairs to Rutherford B. Hayes and Wm. A. Wheeler.

The Chair-Shall it be unanimously adopted ! It was agreed to.

Mr. Keyes of Wisconsin—I move that we now adjourn ine die. The motion was put and carried, and the Convention adjourned.

PENNSYLVANIA'S SIDE SHOW.

SECRETARY CAMERON IN CHARGE OF UNMANAGE-ABLE GOODS-UNABLE TO AID CONKLING, BUT SIRONG ENOUGH TO AVOID A PUBLIC DEFEAT. INT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

CINCINNATI, June 16 .- The contest in the Pennsylvania delegation has been one of the most interesting side shows of the Convention. Ever since the day on which it arrived in Cincinnati the extraordinary sale of it to President Grant by the Cameron Ring, and the determination of the latter to deliver the goods to Senator Conkling in accordance with the terms of the contract, caused every movement which it made to be watched with extraordinary interest; and the fight which was known to be going on among its members for supremacy assumed an importance which does not usually attach to quarrels among the politicians of a single State. Had Secretary Cameron been able to carry out his part of the bargain with President Grant, as he supposed he could, and swung the delegation of Pennsylvania over to

Mr. Conkling at the critical time, it is impossible to say what might have been the result. Had it generally been understood when the delegation met early in the week that all of its members would be governed by the unit rules, and stand by Mr. Hartranft until a majority of the delegates voted to do otherwise, and that when they did withdraw their own candidate they would vote solid for such other man as the majority of the delegation should direct, even then the result of to-day's work might have been different. But whatever might have been the dis position of the delegates before the appointment of "Don" Cameron to be Secretary of War, the ma-jority of them had too much self-respect to allow him after that to turn them over as he might see fit to Roscoe Conkling or any other candidate who was willing to pay the highest price. This was the meaning of the resolution which they adopted, providing for calling the delegation together, and this the meaning of the bitter contest which occurred on the floor of the Convention to-day.

Early in the week there is no doubt that a majority of the Pennsylvania delegation had made up their minds to vote for Mr. Blaine whenever they could do so without violating the spirit of the instructions given them by the State Convention. This fact became apparent as soon as the delegation was called together after reaching Cincinnati. Whether Secretary Cameron was surprised or not at this discovery it is impossible to say; but there is no doubt that from the time that meeting adjourned until the balloting began in the Convention to-day he spared no efforts to keep his delegation together, not in the expectation of delivering it to Senator Conkling, but with the hope that its open repudiation of him as a leader might be pre-He appealed to each member personally not to desert him, and he aroused so much sympathy among some of the delegates that, while they could not be induced to follow him to the support of any other candidate, they were prevailed upon to stand by Gov. Hartranft. This the Blaine men of the delegation discovered yesterday, and seeing that unless they could break down the unit rule, their candidate might be defeated while they stood by unable to give him any aid, determined to force the issue, and, f necessary, provide for bringing the question into the Convention for decision. In accordance with this purpose they proposed to Secretary Cameron that on the second ballot, if it appeared that the vote of Pennsylvania for Blaine would nominate him, the entire vote of the State should be so cast. This Mr. Cameron refused to listen to. His personal reputation as a political man was involved. If Pennsylvania should vote solid for Blame on the second or any other ballot, it would be universally interpreted as a defeat for Mr. Cameron. If Pennsylvania changed her vote from Gov. Hartranft to any other man than Mr. Blaine Secretary Cameron might claim the honor of it; but no one would ever believe in case it went to the Maine statesman that the leadership of the delegation had not been wrested from him.

No course was left to the Blaine men except to raise the question in the Convention, which they did on the third ballot. When Pennsylvania was reached on the third roll-call, therefore, and Mr. Cameron cast its 58 votes for Gov. Hartranft, one of the delegates from that State, who had gone upon the platform in advance for that purpose, rose, and, in behalf of himself and three others from Pennsylvania demanded that their votes be cast for Blaine. Then there was the greatest uproar. Some one made the point of order that under the rules it was the duty of the chairman of each delegation to cast the vote of his State, and that when it was once so cast it should not be changed until the result of that ballot was announced. Of course there was nothing in this point. It was a question of the very highest privilege whether a delegate or any number of delegates should be allowed to exercise their private judgment in voting for candidates in a National Republican Convention, or whether they could be bound down by the instructions of a State Convention or the will of a majority of their delegation. President McPherson ruled, without hesitation, that it was the right of every member of the Convention to have his vote announced as he desired. Pennsylvania was at once on its feet, and twenty men in that and other delegations were shouting fer recognition. One of the delegates MR. CHARMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: It has always been my belief that no citizen should ask office at the hands of his fellows, and that none should decline responsibility. The vote of my delegation has been polied, and without suggestion my own name was menhoned for the Vice-Presidency. The majority of my delegation did not desire to present my name. In this I am sure they show their great good sense; and grateful for the privilege of working in the ratification by the people of the work you do will be most gladly done, permit me to withdraw my name from the nomination. (Cheers.)

On motion, three ringing cheers were then accorded. he had not heard the request of Mr. Cessna, and the latter retorted angrily that he did not want to. Thereupon the President said that such imputations dishonored the gentleman from Pennsylvania and dishonored the Convention. This caused a tremendone tumult.

Finally, after a scene of the wildest confusion. lasting several minutes, and during which all the efforts of the President to restore order were unavailing, Mr. Thornburg of Tennessee, standing on his chair, moved that the vote by which the decision of the presiding officer was sustained be reconsidered, and on this a very excited debate sprung up. Messra. Cessna and Oliver from Pennsylvania read the instructions of the Pennsylvania State Convention, and insisted that the delegation was bound by them. Mr. Van Zant of Rhode Island sustained this view, and Mr. Hale of Maine suggested that the Pennsylvania delegation be allowed to retire for consultation, to which Mr. Pomeroy of New-York objected. At the close of Mr. Oliver's remarks, the President said that he could know nothing officially about the proceedings of the Pennsylvania State Convention. but had to be governed by the rules of this body. All of this time the call of the roll had been suspended, and of course all of the proceedings were out of order. By unanimous consent, therefore, the vote of Pennselvania was passed until after the roll had been called throughout when the question came up to be decided. When it was taken up again a very interesting and exciting debate took place, in which many of the giants of the Convention participated. The question was brought squarely before the Convention again by the adoption of the motion to reconsider, and then, after more discussion, the decision of the Chair was sustained by a vote of 395 Yeas to 353 Nays. The scale was probably turned by Mr. Hale, who called attention to the fact that an exactly similar question attention to the fact that an exactly similar question arose in the Convention of 1868, and that it was then decided that the several delegates were entitled to have their votes announced in accordance with their wishes. This whole scene, which was one of the most exciting of the Convention, ended in a triumph for the Blaine men, and they entered on the fourth ballot much elated.

MR. BLAINE NOT DISSATISFIED.

HR IS PROUD OF HIS SUPPORT-HIS EARLY PREDIC-TION OF HAYES'S CHANCES-THE NOMINATION NEGATIVELY SATISFACTORY TO THE OPPOSING

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] WASHINGTON, June 16 .- When Mr. Blaine, two or three months ago, in a conversation with Jeremiah S. Black, said that he did not fear Conkling, Morton, Bristow, or any of the other prominent candidates, but that if anybody could beat him it would be the "Great Unknown," he spoke with more prophetic truth than was admitted at the time. The result of to-day's balloting at Cincinnati has shown that the weakest candidate on the first few ballots, who was supposed to be in the race at all was Gov. Haves, and that Mr. Blaine had more votes than any two candidates, and in some cases more than any three. The nomination of Gov. Hayes, however, is negatively satisfactory to all the defeated candidates, whatever it may be to the Republican party at large.

Mr. Blaine is by no means dissatisfied. He has reason to be, and is, proud of his support. The vote by which he was beaten was so insignificant that his defeat is almost as great an honor as his nomination, and he has a good deal of satisfaction in reflecting that it required the concentration and consolidation of all the opposing | candidates to defeat him, and that the result was finally accom-plished by a majority of about a score. The most humiliating spectacle, however, as viewed from this point, is that presented to-day by Roscoe Conkling, who has had the benefit of the whole Administration power, whose money at Cincinnati had no end, whose operators and strikers were numbered by the hundreds, and whose clamor and parade and brag were never before equaled. With all these supposed advantages, he never received outside his own State a score and a half of votes.

At Mr. Blaine's house the scene was a very quiet

one. Very few of his personal friends were present.

On one side of the library table sat Mr. Sherman, his secretary, a practical telegraph operator, with his fingers upon the key. On each side of him sat a son of Mr. Blaine, keeping the tally as the votes came in. Mrs. Blaine was a close watcher of the figures as they were noted against the States, and "Gail Hamilton's" voice filled the room with bright sayings. Mr. Blaine, while keeping an eye on the votes, was in the best of spirits. He was full of anecdote and political history, and at no time was he so much interested in the news as to miss a word or a joke that passed among his friends. During the intervals in the votes he sometimes rested on a convenient sofa, and sometimes sat the window, chatting with his friends. At no time did he appear nervous or anxious, and when, during the last vote, he foresaw his own defeat and the nomination of Gov. Hayes, he called the attention of the half-dozen friends about him to the fact that he was not nervous. He seized a pen and wrote in a bold, clear, firm hand, and as rapidly as anybody could write, the letter of congratulation to Gov. Hayes; and before the final result had been deter mined the hearty dispatch was already on its way to Gov. Hayes, at Columbus. He then as rapidly wrote a dispatch to Mr. Hale, asking him to call in person to bear his congratulations to Mr. Hayes, and also one to Messrs. Hamlin, Hale, and Frye, thanking them for their noble fight.

Senator Morton sat in one of his rooms at the Ebbett House in his shirt-sleeves, with friends around him, reading the dispatches which came in on him by the dozen. At the sixth ballot he became somewhat anxious and sent his young son here and there to obtain the accurate figures. Gen. Butler, Gen. Garfield, and other prominent gentlemen speni some time with him.

When the vote was finally known at Mr. Blaine's house not one member of his family manifested any unusual disappointment, although all must have felt it. Certainly Mr. Blaine was in excellent humor, and his wife said that he had regained his health at all events, and that was worth more than all the political exaltation within the power of man to bestow. Dinner was served soon after the nomination was closed, and subsequently Mr. Blaine drove out in Mr. Fish's carriage. As he passed through the crowded streets past the telegraph offices he was greeted with cheer after cheer, which could not have been more hearty had he been the nomince.

RATIFICATION MEETING. ENTHUSIASTIC DEMONSTRATION IN CINCINNATI-

ADDRESS BY GEN, HAWLEY. CINCINNATI, June 16 .- A grand ratification meeting was held to-night at Pike's Opera House. The committee of the Bristow Club of this city waited upon the Hayes committee and invited them to take possession of the Opera House. The large hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and all the speeches made were received with the utmost cuthusiasm. The meeting was called to order by John Carlisle. He introduced Gen. Hawley of Connecticut, who came forward amid lond cheers, and addressed the meeting substantially as follows:

connecticut, who came forward and conditions addressed the meeting substantially as follows:

MR. CHAINMAN AND GINTLEMEN: Heing just at your door when this cal came. I could not plead in justification for non-attendance the extreme weariness which we certainly all feel. I can say that on the whole we are exceedingly satisfied with the work we have done. (Cheers.) We do not deny that we suffered no little anxiety. We were conscious that this was the turning point in the history of the Republican party.

Inevitably the party has made errors in appointments and in other details of the administration; inevitably it has made mistakes in legislation, the wisest men could hardly have failed to do this. We never shall find a party or an ada. Inistration that will conduct the inflars of this Government in a perfectly satisfactory manner, but many of us feel that it might have been much better than it was. Whatever the reason, whatever the philosophy—and i don't stop now to point out these errors—that is quite unnecessary, and would certainly be an ungrateful task—the fact was that they existed; and it is an excellent sixm—not one to be lamented—that there prevails throughout the country an interest, lenging to lift up party ponities to a higher plane as far is possible, to make all possible apology, if you choose to call it so, to the Am-rican people for our shortcomings by giving them new pledges, and the strongest in our power, for a better future. [Applause.] Speeches were also made by Mr. Pomeroy of New-York

CONGRATULATIONS FROM MR. BLAINE. Washington, June 16 .- Upon hearing of the nom ination of Gov. Hayes, Mr. Blaine sent him the following dispatch :

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16 .- To Gor. R. B. HAYES, Columbus, Ohio: I offer you my sincerest congratula tions on your nomination. It will be alike my highest pleasure, as my first political duty, to do the utmost in my power to promote your election. The earliest mo-ments of my returning and confirmed health will be devoted to securing you as large a vote in Maine as she would have given for myself.

J. G. BLAINE.

TELEGRAMS FROM MORTON AND BRISTOW. Washington, June 16 .- Senator Morton has

WASHINGTON, June 10. Chapter the Assertion of the Presidence, R. Hayes, Columbus, Ohio:

I congratulate you upon your nomination for the Presidency, and shall labor earnestly for your success.

O. P. MORTON.

The following is a copy of Secretary Bristow's messaze:

Gor. R. B. HAYES, Columbus, Ohio:

1 beg you to accept my earnest and hearty congratulations. Your nomination secures a victory in November.

B. H. Baisrow.

GOV. HARTRANFT TO GEN. HAYES. HARRISBURG, June 16 .- Immediately upon the receipt of the news announcing the nomination of Gen. Hayes the following dispatch was sent:

Gen. Hayes the following dispatch was sent:

HARRISHURG, Penn., June 16, 1876.

To Gen. R. B. Hayes, Columbus, Onio.

I most sincerely congratulate you on your nomination.

Pennsylvania will surely give you her yote in November.

J. F. HARTKANFT.

DISPATCH FROM CONKLING TO CORNELL. CINCINNATI, June 16.—The following dis-patch was received to-night from Senator Conkling:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16.
ALONZO B. COUNELL, Grand Holel, Cincinnati. Have just heard of the nomination of Gov. Hayes, and deem it good and wise. I wish I could make you and all other friends know how deeply grateful I am for the effects in my tehalf.

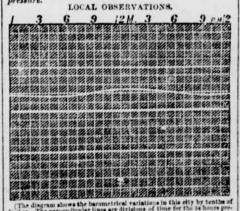

Rescor CONKLING. (For Sketches of Candidates and Talks with Politicians see

GOVERNMENT WEATHER REPORT. Probabilities.

For New-England, increasing south and south-west winds; warmer, partly cloudy weather, followed by falling barometer.

For the Middle Allantic States, increasing south-east to south-west winds, stationary or higher temperature, partly cloudy or cicar weather with local rains and lower pressure.

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS. LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

The diagram shows the barometrical variations in this city by tenths of Inches. The perpendicular lines are divisions of time for the 3s hours presently an expension of the perpendicular lines are divisions of time for the 3s hours presently make the perpendicular to the mercury diving those hours. When the curved line is entirely above the line of mean pressure [30 inches) and little variable, an weather may be redied upon. If there are sudden and excessive fluctuations, a northersteady shown in threatment. The time of fits appreach is influenced by the frequency of the fluctuations; its violence by the excess of the movement. When curve is below the line of mean pressure, uncertain weather will like the curved line from a says to exceed the line (3s) extracts a tendency from soud to had weather, which as a sense from a new to expect the curve of the curved line from a says to exceed the line (3s) extracts a tendency from soud to had weather, when a sense from a new to example the curve of the curved line from a says to exceed the line (3s) to expect the line (3s) to extract a tendency from soud to had weather, and a sense from a new to example the line (3s) to example the lin

Pressure has strengthened for the 24 hours previous to midnight a few hundredths of an inch, but with little fluctuation, and temperature has meanwhile been steady, and there have been no unusual variations in local bamidity. This condition of the atmosphere obtains over most of the Middle and Atlantie States. Winds have prevailed from the southern quadrant for a week or more, and will be productive of continuous rains throughout this section within a week or ten days.

Cloudiness will prevail to an unusual extent, and heavy fogs, which are liable to condensation in the night, must be expected along the coast from the Cheappeake northward. In this city and 100 miles around, cloudy weather with moderate temperature and occasional dense fogs is likely to prevail until the change above described takes place, which is not probable for several days, possibly a week to come.

When mind and body are out of sorts, with cold extremities, a vellowness in the akin contiveness, du headache, and an indisposition to stir about, be sure you are is for a bilious attack, springing from a more or less disorders liver. In: Jarnes Smattire Pills will bring the liver to healthy condition, and speedily remove all biliary distress.

LATEST SHIP NEWS

For other Ship News see Fifth Page.1

For other Ship Nees see Fifth Page.

ARRIVED.

Steamship George Cromwell, Bacon, Halifax, N. S. and St.

Steamship Hatteras, Maliett, Norfolk, with mase, and pass to Clark & Seaman.

Steamship Hatteras, Maliett, Norfolk, with mase, and pass.

to Ohl Dominion Steamship Co.

Steamship Lancaster, Mills, Philadelphia.

Ship Rance (of Liverpool), Stevenson, Calcutta 115 days with sugar.

Brig R. B. Gove (of Carnden), Hodgman, Cardenas 12 days, with sugar.

rith sugar. Brig Morning Light, Dill, New-Haven, in ballast.

Brig Morning Light, Dill, New-Haven, in ballast.

8AILED,
Steamship Albemarle, for Lewes, Del.: shins Universe, for Livrapool via Queenstown: Continental, for San Francisco; Larks Hussel, for Riga: Hurra, for Rotterdam; Arcadia, for Cork or Falmouth, or orders. Thor, for Queenstown: Jose Bineuo, for Sagna: Pirgs Britania, for Parbadoes; Water Witch, for Baltimore: Eigil, for -; and schr. R. J. Paige, WIND-Sunset, moderate. S.; cloudy.

MEMORANDA.

Back Dronning Sophie (Nor.), Petersen, from Antwerp, which arrived till and anchored at Sandy Hook for orders,
was towed to the city 16th, p. m.
DISASTERS.

was towed to the city 16th, p. m.

DISASTERS,

The sehr. Mary A. Hver, from Port Antonio, Jam., for New-York, put into Charleston, S. C., 16th Inst., in disiress, of want nature is no. stated.

Bark "Emilio," of Liverpool (so reported), went ashore during a thick fog on the night of June 16. at the mouth of North Sydney, C. B. ngroot, and is in a leasy condition. Her captain reports that on the 13th inst. she was in collision win the schr. Walter M. Fault or Gloucester, Mass., carrying away the latter's mathmast. The schr. was to preceed to N. r. h Sydney, C. B. for receive. (The above bark is probably the Emilio Ba abio of Liverpool, from Londonderry May 13, for Lowes, Porreign. Popper. FOREIGN PORTS.

MATANZAS June 13.—Sailed, steamship King Arthur (Br.), browell, for New-York; sear. Fred Smith, Smith, for North

Crowest, for New York of the Crown of Hasters of Services, North Sydney, C. B., June 15.—Arrived, bark Crown Jewel (Br.), Smith, from Belfast, Cow Bay, C.B., June 15.—Sailed, brig Johanna (Br.), for Cow Bay, C.B., June 15.—Sailed, brig Johanna (Br.), for New York, N. B., June 15.—Arrived, schrs. Harry & Fred, St. John, N. B., June 15.—Arrived, schrs. Harry & Fred, Garaner, nom New-York; Lizzie G., rom Paliadelpaia. The Best So p made in this country for family use is PYLE'S O. K. It speaks for itself on trial. Sold everywhere.

No preparatory experiments, no regulating of tensions, no winding of bobbins, no coaxing or testing whatever, no ripping, no failure by any one, however inexperienced, in sewing with the Willeox & Gibbs new automatic slient sewing mi

"A Drop of Joy in Every Word."

PLEMINGTON, Hunterslon Co., N. J., June 26, 1874.

Dr. R. V. Beice, Sunialo, N. Y.—bear Sir: It is with a happy heart that I pen these lines to acknowledge that you and your Golien Medical Discovery and Purgative Peilets are bressings to the world. These modicines cannot be too nightly praised, for they have almost brought me could be too nightly praised, for they have almost brought me could grave. There mouths any land face. I precured your colden Medical Discovery and Purgative Peilets, and have taken six bottles, and to-day I am in good health, all those night where having healed and lieft my skin in a natural, healthy condition. I thought at one time I could not be cure: Although I can but poorly express my graitade to you, yet there is a droped joy in every word I write. God's bi-saing rest on you and your won-leaful med cinces is the humble I rayer of Yours truly.

When a medicine will promptly cure such terrible e ling ulcers and free the blood of the virulent poison causing theor, who can longer doubt its wonderful virtues? Dr. Piezus, however, does not wish to place his Golden Middle Discovery in the catalogue of quack patent nosirums by recommending it to cure every disease, as does he so recommend it; but what he does claim is this, that there is but one form of moon disease that it will not cure, and that disease is cancer, lie does not recommend its Discovery for that disease, yet he knows it to be the most searching blood cleanser yet discovered, and that it will free the blood and system of all other known blood poisons, be they amond, to care leads of markal by hith to cure the worst.

ANDERSON-MILBANK-On Thursday, June 15, 1876, at the Collegiate Church, Fifth-ave, and Twenty-ninth-st., by Kev. Wm, Anderson and Kev. Dr. Ormiston, Abraham A. Anderson to Elizabeth, daughter of Jeromiah and Edizabeth L. Milbank.

LARK-CLARK-On Thursday, June 15, at the residence of Clark of this city.

AVIS-La WTON-On 14th inst., at Chelten Hilla, by Priends' ceremony, Henry C. Davis of Philadelphia to Miss Naomi Lawton of Athens, N. Y. No cards.

LEFFERTS-GRAY-On Wednesday, June 14, 1876, at Plymouth Church, by the Rev. Henry Ward Reccher, John Lefferts, jr., of Fintbush, to Mary J., daughter of Joseph W. Gray of providin.

Gray of brooklyn.

LUSK-THORN-On Wednesday, June 14, at the Fourth Presbyterian Church, by the Roy, William K. Hail of Newburga, assisted by the Roy, Dr. Crosby, William T. Lusk to Mathida Myer Thorn, both of this city.

MCCUTCHEN-MARSH-In Plainfield, N.J., on Thursday, June 15, at the residence of Elston Marsh, cau, the bride's father, by Rey, D. J. Yerkes, D. D. Samuel St. J. McCutchen to Helen M. Marsh, both of Plainfield.

PARKER-FLEMMING—In Jersey City, N. J., June 14, 1876, by the Rev. Dr. Abertrombie of St. Matthew's Clurch, Clarence Gray Farker of Farls, France, to M. Louise Fleimining, youngest dauguter of the late James Fleimining of Jersey City.

asy City.

STEPHENS-SHOARS-At Mt. Hope, N. J., Wednesday evening, June 14, 1876, by the Rev. D. E. Platter, assisted by the Rev. A. L. Wilson, Mr. Frank D. Stephens to Miss Clara N. Shoare. No cards.

All Notices of Marriages must be indorsed

ALLEN-At Stamford, Conn., June 15, Jonathan W. Alleu of

New York City.

Belatives and triends are invited to attend the funeral from his late residence, Stamford, on Monday, 19th inst., at 12 o'clock. Carriages will be in waiting on arrival of 10:0 a.m. train from Grand Central Depot; returning train at 1:43 p.m. Interment at Woodlawn.

143 p. m. Interment at Woodlawn.

G11.MAN-The funeral services of Samuel Parson Gilman, elicist child of Theodore and Eliz. D. Gilman, who died at Florence, Italy, March 27, 1875, agel 1. years, will be held at the residence of his parents. No. 288 Lexington-ave., on the morning of Saturday, the 17th Inst., at 11 o'clock.

the morning of saturday, the 17th inst., at 11 o'clock.

HAINES—At Poughkeepsic, on fourth day ovening, sixth month, 14th, Abugail B., wife of the late Franklin Haines, in the 74th year of her age.

The relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend her timeral on seventh day afternoon, the 17th inst., at 2 o'clock, from her late residence, No. 83 South Hamilton-st., Poughkeepsie. Train leaves the Grand Central Dopot at 10.30 a. m.; returning, leaves Poughkeepsie at 4:00 p. m.

Philadelphia papers please copy.

HUTCHINSON—On Thurstay morning. June 15, Samuel Hutchinson, in the 71st year of his age.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the four-rai from his late residence, 109 Moniague-st., Brooklyn, on Saturday, 17th inst., at 3 o'clock p.m.

LABAGH—Suddenly, at Cincinnath, on June 15, Isaac Labagh of this city, in the 96th year of his age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the tuneral on Sunday, the 18th inst. at 1:30 p. m., from the church corner Fifth-ave. and Twonty-inith-st. LEGGETT-Thursday, June 15, 1876, Frances V., widow of the late Thomas H. Leggett of Flushing, L. I., in her soch

No. 1. Relatives and friends are invited to her funeral on Sunday, the 18th Inst., at 4 o'clock p. m., from her late residence, near the Main-st depot. Cars leave Hunter's Point at 3:30 p. m. the Malin-st. depot. Cars leave Hunter's Point at 3:30 p. m., LEGGETT--On Thursday morning, June 15, 1876, at her resi-dence, Flushing L. I. Frances V. Leggett, relict of Thomas H. Leggett, deceased, in her 80th year. Notice of funeral hereatter. LINEN-At Scrantou, Penn., Monday, June 12, infant son of James A. and Annie C. Linen, age 7 months.

OSBORN—On Friday evening, June 16, Arthur, son of Rev. Dr. A. C. and Emma H. Osborn. Funeral at residence of the parents, 332 West Thirtieth-st., Saturday evening, June 17, at So'clock. Saturday evening, June 17, at 8 o'clock.

RICHARDSON—At Poughkeepsie, N. V., on Tuesday evening, 13th mst., Rev. Marvin Richardson, D. D., in the 88th year of his age.

The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend his funeral from the Washington Street M. E. Church, Poughkeepsie, on Saturday, the 17th inst., at 3 o'clock p. m.

STEWART-In Jersey City, June 16, Hattle E., youngest daughter of Albert B. and Hattle E. Stewart.
Relatives and trends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the residence of her parents, corner of Ogdenave and South at, Jersey City Hights, N. J., on Sunday, June 18, at 2 p. m.
VAN DE WERKEN-On Friday, June 16, at the residence of her son, in Bioomfield, N. J., Mrs. Catherine Van De Werken.

Funeral Monday, June 19, at 12 m. WETMORE—on Thursday morning, June 13. Mary Carmer, wife of Apolios It. Wetmore, in the 78th year of her age. The relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral from her late reasones. No. 25 Fifth ave., on Saturday, the 17th inst., at 3 o clock p. m., without further notice.

AVELIN On the 16th inst., at his late residence, 562 Fifth ave., in this city, after a short illness. Gardner Greenless Yvelin. Notice of the funeral hereafter.

Special Notices.

A Lecture on Nasai Catarra, by Dr. WILLIAMSON, ate Canteal Physician in the University Medical Codege; just Keep's Patent Partly Made Dress Shirts, the very Keep's Patent Partly Made Dress Shirts, the very best, at for 50, can be unished as easily as hermining a hand-kerchnel. 671 Brondway, and 921 Arch at., Philadelphid.

Post-Office Notice.—The POREIGN MAILS for the week enough SATURDAY, June 17, 1876, will close at this office on TUESDAY at 7 a. m., for Europe, per steamship Newada, in Queenstown; on WEDNESDAY at 7 a. m., for Europe, per steamship Newada, per Steamship Seythia, via Queenstown; on THURSDAY at 10 a. m., for Europe, per steamship Omercania, via Plymouth, Cherbourg, and Hamburg; on SATURDAY at 10 a. m., for Europe, per steamship Memoratin, via Plymouth, Cherbourg, and Hamburg; on SATURDAY at 10 a. m., for Europe, per steamship Percere, via Havre, and at 10 a. m., for Scotland direct, must be specially nidroesed "Per steamship Anchora," via Glasgow; and at 11.39 a. m. for Europe, per steamship West, via Southampton and strengen. The mails for the West Indica, via Havran, with tevne Now York June 20. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21. The mails for China, &c., will leave San Francisco June 21.

To Visitors and Strangers,—One of the sights of London is the G AND VAULTS of the NATIONAL SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY (hunted), I Queen Victoriast, Manajor House, E. C. Open daily to the public. Here the burgior is defled, fire annihilated, and security attained.